

EMANUEL PARISHIONERS: Did you know that you can mail in your weekly contribution in your regular offering envelope? Just place your check in the envelope, seal it, add a stamp, and mail. It's that simple. Envelopes may also be deposited through the mail slot by the door to the Parish Office.

WANT TO CONTRIBUTE ONLINE? It's easy! If you currently pay bills online through your financial institution, simply add Emanuel Lutheran Church or Grace Episcopal Church to your list. Fill out the pertinent information, including the church's mailing address and your envelope number. (If you don't know your envelope number, call the Parish Office and leave a message. Someone will get back with you.) Set up the amount and frequency of your contribution. The church will receive a paper check issued from your account and will credit your envelope number.

Not familiar with online banking? Your financial institution can walk you through setting up online bill pay. Just give them a call.

Sunday, May 26th

A very special day in the life of our combined congregations.

Please make every effort possible to be in attendance on this date as we have several very important things happening.

The first is to congratulate Hannah Glanville, Charlie Kolb and Maya Shriver on their High School graduation.

We will also be awarding the scholarships to those who are continuing their studies.

And finally in preparation for our 150th anniversary celebration we will be taking a congregational photo that day as well.

Come and share a time of celebration as we mark this important milestone in the lives of our students.

And yes, of course there will be cake at coffee hour!

Study of the Apocrypha

Have you ever wondered why some Bibles have more books in them than others? What are these additional books and why are they not in all bibles? Did you know that readings from these additional books are included in what we call the lectionary, which are the readings from scripture that we hear on certain Sundays of the church calendar? These additional books are called "The Apocrypha" or "Deuterocanonical" books.

Come, bring your appetite. We will share a meal as we find out why some bibles have them and others do not. Find out why some denominations use them and others won't touch them. Better yet, discover what they say and mean. All you need is a willingness to learn more about the Holy scriptures and a bible that includes these additional books. And just in case you don't have one, no worries as we will have a few copies to loan out.

Tentative Schedule

April	2	Introduction
	9	The book of Susanna
	16	The book of Ecclesiasticus
	23	Wisdom of Solomon
	30	Judith and Tobit
May	7	Baruch, Letter of Jerimiah, Bel and the Dragon
	14	1 Maccabees
	21	2 Maccabees and the Prayers and Songs

The names on the Prayer list will be rotated every 30 days unless we are notified other wise.
